Membership Generally

There shall be five classes of Membership, namely:

- (a) Individual Members;
  - (b) Corporate Members;
  - (c) Group Members;
  - (d) Family Members;
  - (e) Junior Members.
- (2) Council may, from time to time, as it sees fit, provide for additional classes of membership.
- (3) Individual Membership:
A person is eligible to be an individual member of the Society if the person is a natural person and has been nominated and approved for membership of the Society.
- (4) Corporate Membership:
An incorporated association or other incorporated entity is eligible to be a corporate member of the Society if it has been nominated and approved for membership.
- (5) Group Membership:
An individual who is a member of a group as defined and provided for in the By-laws, who is not an individual member of the Society, and in respect of whom the group has paid to the Society the requisite group membership fee, is eligible to be a group member of the Society.
- (6) Family Members:
A family member is a member of the immediate family of an individual or life member, living at the same address as the individual or life member, and in respect of whom the requisite family membership fee has been paid to the Society.
- (7) Junior Members:
A person who is nominated and approved for individual membership of the Society, who is under the age of 18 years, shall be a junior member and the annual membership fee payable by a junior member so long as he or she remains under 18 at the time fees are payable, shall be half the fee payable by individual members who are over the age of 18.
- (8) Individual, Junior and corporate membership of the Society shall include subscription to The Orchadian.
- (9) Every individual or family member present in person or by proxy shall have one vote. A member is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Society unless all money due and payable by the member to the Society has been paid.
- (10) A member is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Society if the member is under 18 years of age.
- (11) Corporate members are not entitled to a vote at any meeting of the Society.
