

NOEL GRUNDON

Began growing orchids in 1964, mainly Australian Native Orchids from South-east Qld & Cymbidiums. Since moving to Atherton in 1995, now growing mainly Oncidium alliance, Latouria Dendrobium, Calanthe, and Cymbidium.

Orchid Judge of the Australian Orchid Council since 1983; currently Training Officer for orchid judges for the Northern Area Judging Panel in Queensland for the Australian Orchid Council.

Life Member of the Queensland Orchid Society, Australasian Native Orchid Society, Native Orchid Society Toowoomba, and Fellow of the Australian Orchid Council (FAOC).

Currently Patron of the Australian Orchid Council.